MARYVILLE WINS FROM CAMERON

MISSIS ALICE PEERY AND IVA LAPE GET DECISION IN DEBATE

HARD FOUGHT CONTEST

Discuss Labor Law Embodying Principals of Kansas Law—Harry Miller Accompanies Contestants.

The State Teachers College won in the debate with the Missouri-Wesleyan College at Cameron last night. Miss Alice Peery and Miss Iva Lape represented the college here. The question upon which the hard fought battle was won is: Resolved that the federal government should enact legislation embodying the principals of the Kansas law for settling labor disputes in public service utilities.

The girl won the right to represent the college after five different contests in which the question was discussed from both affirmative and negative side of the issue. Harry A. Miller, instructor in reading and public speaking had charge of the debating as part of the English work in the college. The girls received all of their coaching from Mr. Miller.

"The debaters from Maryville got a decision of 2 to 1 in their favor," said Mr. Miller, who returned from Cameron at noon today. "The judges were Judge H. J. Smith, prosecuting attorney of Kansas City, Kan.; Shepherd Leffler, instructor in the Junior College of Kansas City, Mo.; and Mr. Coburn of Chillicothe. Judge Smith and Mr. Leffler voted in favor of the State Teachers College representatives.

"The girls did well. I never heard a more interesting debate. They had to debate two men, one a freshman and the other a senior. Both have had considerable experience in debating. One of the opponents was a mature man. Cameron gave us a royal welcome, and treated us splendidly all the time we were there. We are proud of the way in which the girls handled the subject and won the debate."

Miss Alice Peery is a junior in the State Teachers' College. She entered the college just after graduation from the Maryville High School two years ago. She has been active in all college activities besides ranking high in scholarship. She is a member of the Eurekan Literary Society; a member of the Y. W. C. A.; president of the girls athletic club which was organized last week. She has been one of the hiking club members also.

Miss Iva Lape is a sophomore in the State Teachers' College. She attended one summer before this year. She is a basket ball player and took an active part in the games played this winter by the girls. She is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and the Eurekan Literary Society. She is president of the Girls' Bible class of the First Christian Church, which is composed of girls from the college. Miss Lape, also ranks high in scholarship. Both girls are representative and take an active part in all the college activities.

HAVE YOU EYES THAT SEE RIGHT?

STERLING WILLIAMS ASKS YOUNG FOLK AT CONFERENCE

233 ENROLL FROM CO.

It's Service That Counts—Money Can't Buy True Greatness—Edith Cavell Saw This—So Did Booth

"Have you eyes that see not or do you merely look?" was the question propounded to the young folk last night at the First Baptist Church by Sterling Williams of Kansas City, one of the speakers at the older boys and girls conference in session at Maryville this week end.

The most important thing in the world is to see right. Cicotte couldn't see right. The Kaiser of Germany couldn't see right. Can you see right?

Any Life Can Bless

Any life can bless when it has the right chance. Is your life a blessing? Can you see this?

Others need me more than I need my-self. Nothing is more repulsive than selfishness. A little emigrant boy, Riis Jocob, who could neither read nor write or speak our language, realized when grown that others needed him more than he needed himself. He went into Mulberry Bend and turned it into Mulberry Park. Booth could see this and the Salvation Army was the result.

Edith Cavell Read This

Money does not buy true greatness. Its service that counts. Ismay could not read this. He proved himself a coward and leaped into the life boat after the order women and children first was given, when the Leviathan was sinking. Now he spends his days on a lonely island of the seas. Edith Cavell could read this and her name will be remembered when Ismay's has been long forgotten.

God Is Real

The last and fifth thing which I would ask if you can read is: "God is Real."

Foch could see this and in the weary hours of strife and battle he was seen to steal away to a little chapel and kneel before the altar. Washington could read this. At Valley Forge and in other times of stress he was want to steal away to talk with God.

Miss Lottie Mae Bose, another speaker at the conference talked on "I Dare You."

Dare to Everyone.

A dare is coming to every boy and girl in the conference to give of his best during the meeting here. A dare that he or she may go back home with some thing worth while. Your school is daring you to do your best; your home is daring you to give of your best; your community is daring you to give of your best. While the greatest challenge of all that comes is the challenge to serve God. He dares you to train yourselves for leadership. You must accept this challenge.

Besides these talks toasts were offered by John Price, Lee Meek, Mary Crowson, Arthur Garrett, Mabel Raines, William Mapel, Ruth Houchons.

High Quartette Sings

The high school quartette, which was on for one number proved so popular that they were recalled four times. A humorous number "My Home Town" was sung two times.

Stunt songs used at the Geneva conference such as "I'm A Little Prairie Flower," "Oh, it isn't any Trouble Just to Grin, Grin, Grin, were sung by every body under the leadership of Miss Bose.

Women Serve Banquet

It was announced that 233 persons had registered at the close of the banquet. This was served by the Women's Aid societies of the different churches in Maryville. The banquet room was decorated in blue and white with pink peonies centering the tables.

A demonstration of an organized class will be given in the morning at 9:30 o'clock at the high school auditorium for the delegates only. Miss Bose and Mr. Williams assisted by several of the Sunday school teachers will put on this demonstration.

This afternoon separate sessions of the boys and girls conference were held. Mr. Williams led the boys' meeting at which Wilbur Williams, John Price and Ora McPherron talked.

The girls' conference was led by Miss Bose. Miss Ruth Miller, Miss Irene Lowry, Miss Mary Crowson made talks. Bert Cooper addressed a joint

HYDE VETOES STATE INCOME TAX REDUCTION

Took This Action Despite the Fact He Recommended Substantial Reduction in Taxes.

Jefferson City, April 9.—The bill decreasing the rate of state income tax from one and one-half per cent to one per cent, the only tax reduction measure passed by the fifty-first general assembly, was vetoed today by Governor Hyde. The governor took this action despite the fact that in both his inaugural message and special message to the legislature he recommended substantial reduction in the state income tax and was included in his legislative program. The bill as finally passed also increased the exemptions for children from $200 to $400. Other exemptions remained at $1,000 for single persons and $2,000 for married.

HAS NOT BEEN KEEPING TAB ON WEATHER LAST FEW DAYS

It Was 22 Degrees at 7 o'Clock This Morning—Fair Tonight, Freezing.

The weather man of Maryville is unable to account for the sudden change of temperature. He had put in his lettuce and onions after the first freeze and trusted that the warm, spring-like weather, which followed would continue. He has not been keeping a close tab on the variations of the thermometer, barometer and other weather apparatus. It was 22 degrees at 7 o'clock this morning. This is 10 degrees below freezing. The highest Friday was 60 degrees.

The weather predictions for today are fair tonight with freezing temperature tonight.

FATHER FROWIN, ABBOT AT CONCEPTION, 40 YEARS

Conception Monastery Was Raised to The Rank of an Abbey on April 5, 1881

The Catholic Tribune of St. Joseph had the following this week in regard to the fortieth anniversary of the Conception Monastery as an Abbery .

On April 5, 1881, Pope Leo XIII. raised Conception Monastery to the rank of an Abbey and appointed Father Frowin Conrad, O. S. B., its first Abbot. It was a happy coincidence that this year on April 5th in the Benedictine Order the Feast of St. Benedict was celebrated, and hence with all the solemnity due to such a feast, Conception Abbey observed the fortieth anniversary of the Abbot's appointment by Pope Leo XIII. The Venerable Father Abbot celebrated Pontifical High Mass and Father Stephen, O. S. B., Rector of the College, delivered the panegyric, dwelling on the influence of Western Monasticism on civilizattion. Moreover, in well chosen words, he reviewed the Abbot's work at Conception. On Sept. 18, 1923, it will be fifty years since Abbot Frowin came to Conception. May Our Lord spare his life to see that day.

WILL NOT COLLECT CORN FOR STARVING EUROPEANS NOW

Representative of State Farm Bureau Was Here This Week To See About Matter

The gift corn for the sufferers of Europe will not be collected just now, according to S. H. Kemp, who was interested in the matter. A representative of the state farm bureau was here this week to see about the matter but Mr. Kinnaird will not be able to take it up at this time. He is busy with the Better Bulls campaign and will not have time to give to the other just now. It will be taken up later. One wagon load of corn was donated by George Fred Davis but no further contributions were made. It is thought that when the matter is brought before the people again, however, a number will volunteer to contribute. The railroads will transport free all corn that is collected through the farm bureau for the suffering peoples of Europe.

The first two car loads of Missouri corn for the relief of the starving people of Europe started on its long journey last week. Atchison county farmers are the first in Missouri to write their names on the roll of honor in this great humanitarian project, in which all farmers of Missouri are invited to have a part. Other counties are making preparations to follow Atchinson's lead.

Chester H. Gray of Nevada, Mo., has been named as State Chairman of the "Corn Relief Project." Any community having a carload of corn to spare is invited to write Mr. Gray.

A preliminary survey of the corn holdings in Missouri indicates that over one-half the counties in the State have a surplus in certain sections—particularly in the valley and bottom lands. County chairman are being urged to canvass their counties thoroly. There are tens of thousands of farmers in Missouri who will be glad to donate a portion of their small holdings along with the more generous donations of the large producers. No one should be overlooked. The grand total of all will put Missouri over the top on her two million bushel quota.

D. E. Thmpson of Lincoln, Neb. has individually donated a carload of corn to the "Gift Corn Project." How many Thompsons have we in Missouri?

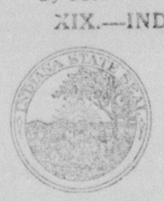
The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE

XIX.—INDIANA



IT WAS the French flag which first floated over Indiana. In the middle of the seventeenth century La Salle's explorations brought him through the wooded wilderness of Indiana. Shortly there followed Jesuit missionaries from Quebec and in their trail came adventurous rangers and fur traders. French forts and trading posts were soon established. In 1763 the British took possession of this territory after the French and Indian wars, and remained in possession until the Revolution.

One of the boldest campaigns of the Revolution was that of Clark's little army, whose indomitable courage and audacity finally defeated the large British garrison at Vincennes and won the Northwest territory for Virginia. Pioneers from the East and from Kentucky made their way into this new territory, and among these was Abraham Lincoln's family. It was in 1816, the year that Indiana became the nineteenth state, that Lincoln attained citizenship in Indiana. With the increase in population by 1800 Indiana Territory was formed, extending from the Ohio border west to the Mississippi and north to Canada. Vincennes was selected as the first capital. In 1804, when the Louisiana Purchase was made, the government of Louisiana was placed in the hands of the Indiana Territory officials, so that for one year the capital of Louisiana was also at Vincennes in Indiana.

Although nicknamed the Hoosier State, from the old southern slang for rough backwoodsmen, Indiana, with its 36,254 square miles, its fifteen Presidential electors, and containing as it does the center of population, is considered of utmost importance politically.

By using the proper caution the crowd was held on the north side and thus a catastrophy of no little consequence was averted.

The case against Ollie Breit, charged with obtaining money under false pretense comes up tonight in Judge Culver's court. Breit was arrested after considerable trouble on the part of Moot-sheriff Stalling, who was compelled to swear in a deputy Joe Miller, to effect the arrest.

The information charges Breit with having sold a small female shoat, Jersey sow and furnished a pedigree claiming same was a purebred Duroc with it. John Rasco is the complaining witness. The petition states that Breit taunted Rasco with having been stung and the sneering became unbareable.

The attornies for the prosecution are Ed. Thompson, M. M. Pollard and Clyde Perkins, C. F. Ross having resigned the case.

Next Week At the Movies

At The Electric

There will be lots of good fun on tap at the Electric, Monday and Tuesday, when Wanda Hawley will appear in, "The Snob." It is a rollicking story of college life with all the "pep" and "jazz" associated with those Halcyon days. The production is Wanda Hawley's latest starring vehicle for Realart and in many ways it is her best. Certainly the part of the reformed Snob fits her as if made to order. There is much interesting drama—and plenty of fun in the scenes which change her from an "up-stage" heiress to the really human girl that's underneath all her superciliousness.

William ("Babe") Lawrence is convincing as the college football hero whose job as a waiter in the college commons starts all the trouble. And of course fat Walter Heirs as a "trouble fixer" is a positive scream. This plump and popular actor gets better with every appearance. This college boy role exceeds even his previous work in "Oh Lady Lady" and "Miss Hobbs."

Heirs, however, is not the only fat funmaker. Sylvia Ashton is present to give her usual delightful impersonation of a socially climbing, newrich mother. Edwin Stevens, well-known character man, plays opposite her in some very delicious domestic comedy business.

There are several "shots" of an exciting football game with all the color and life therein associated. The college campus stuff is very true to atmosphere. The college "prom" is a clever scene which will be relinquished by former college students. All of the vivacious, care-free life of such affairs is splendidly depicted.

The International News film to be shown Monday night will include the Inauguration of President Harding and also a review of Wilson's inauguration in 1913.

What isn't being done this season? Corinnie Griffith, the beautiful and talanted young Vitagraph star will show you Wednesday and Thursday nights when "It Isn't Being Done This Season" will be shown.

It is an exciting story of adventure in New York and Smyrma, the little land in Southern Europe. Through all the strife and turmoil of ten centuries the wonderful rugs of Smyrna have held the intrest of a large population more strongly than politics. Indeed, struggles to obtain rare and beautiful specimens of Smyrna's most imposing product have affected the political fortunes of the land profoundly.

George Hunt was all American, except in his feeling about rugs. In that respect he might have been a Turkish, Armenian or Greek dealer. He took his beautiful young wife to Smyrna on their honeymoon, she discovered that he was thinking more about rugs than about her. Hoping to obtain an exclusive agency from Afif Bey, a wealthy and powerful Turk, Hunt concealed his displesnure at the Oriental dignitary's marked and somewhat florid attentions to Marcia. This attitude angered the lovely young wife, and she deliberately set about arousing her husband's jealousy. In this she succeeded beyond her expectations or desires.

"It Isn't Being Done This Season" provides Corinne Griffith with exceptional opportunities to display her dramatic art, her rare charm and her famous wardrobe.

In addition to Griffith picture, Larry Semon, the popular comedian, of "The Stage Hand," "The Grocery Clerk" etc. will be shown in one of his latest pictures, "The Sportsman." Many have said that this is Semon's best comedy.

On Friday night, the 7th episode of William Duncan in "Fighting Fate" will be shown. In addition to the serial, will be four reels of mixed comedy.

Alexander sighing for more worlds to conquer had nothing on Eddie Lyons, sighing for something loftier than plumbing to engage his talents in "Once a Plumber—," the five reel comedy for Saturday night.

Lee Moran Eddie's plumbing partner, was perfectly satisfied with his lot, but wagged along to see that his pal came to no harm.

In the course of their adventures in high society the two plumbers meet a bevy of beauties, are vamped by a couple of them and forget their village sweethearts, are roped in a fake mining stock swindle, and finally come into a grand mixup with officers of the law and irate friends of the country girls they jilted.

They escape from the shadow of jail to land in the interior of a hospital—which would not be at all funny if it were not for the fact that the sweet and pretty village girls come back to them.

AT THE EMPIRE.

Douglas MacLean and Doris May will be the attraction Monday and Tuesday in their latest screen comedy, "Let's Be Fashionable." This picture is declared to be fully as hilarious as the three previous releases of these youthful co-stars, who have proven extremely popular everywhere.

"Let's Be Fashionable" is the story of a youthful married pair with limited means and their efforts to keep up with the social swim at a swell summer resort. To be in style, both secure themselves "affinities" and get into all sorts of humorous complications. When they have at last extricated themselves from the mess, they decide that it is better to be happy than to be fashionable.

Wade Boteler, Norris Johnson, and George Webb are included in the supporting cast. The story is the work of Mildred Considine and was adapted for the screen by Luther Reed. Lloyd Ingraham directed the picture for Thomas H. Ince. This picture is under the auspices of the Zero club.

A house party at the home of Judge Wray was interrupted last night by the police seeking John Steele, a famous lawyer, who was recognized by Jack Ronsdale as "Sailor" Burke, an escaped criminal. Steele was shot at while leaping from an upper balcony, but he escaped under cover of the darkness.

Ten years ago "Sailer" Burke, a prize fighter, was convicted of murder and given a life sentence by Judge Wray. While crossing the bay he escaped his guard and jumped off the ferry. As he was manacled, he was given up for drowned.

Later, when Judge Wray and his family took an ocean trip, Burke was discovered on board as a stoker. The ship sank at sea and Judge Wray's young daughter, Jocelyn, was saved by Burke, who was not among the survivors.

Just where Burke has spent the intervening years and how he obtained the knowledge of law that has made him such a prominent member of the bar is puzzling the police and his friends, who knew nothing of his past.

The accusation came on the even of the betrothal of Joselyn Wray to Mr. Steele. Miss Wray denies having any knowledge of his whereabouts, and said that she believed her fiancee innocent of the crime.

The end of the story will be told on the screen Wednesday and Thursday, where the Robert Thornby special feature, "Half a Chance" is showing. It is an adaptation of Frederic S. Isham's novel, with Mahlon Hamilton and Lillian Rich featured in the leading roles.

Charles Ray's latest photoplay "Paris Green," will be the chief attraction Friday and Saturday. It is described as a delightful romantic comedy, in which the trail leads from Paris to Quigley Corners, N. J. Mr. Ray has the role of Luther Green, doughboy, who in the hour which he spends in Paris before leaving for the United States meets a pretty French girl and gives her his card.

Luther is discharged from the army and returns to the farm to find his old sweetheart engaged to another man. Meanwhile, Nimon, his Paris acquaintance, journeys to America to take up residence with an uncle here. She falls into the hands of a gang of crooks upon landing from the steamer. Escaping, she goes to the only address she knows—Luther Green, Quigley Corners, N. J. A pretty romance springs up between the two, with the aid of a French-English dictionary, and Luther is not only able to foil the crooks when they follow Nimon, but to convince her uncle of his honorable intentions as well.

Ann May is the leading woman, and the cast also includes Donald McDonald and Otto Hoffman. Julien Josephson, who has written some of Charles Ray's best vehicles, furnished the story. Jerome Storm directed. The picture was produced by Thomas H. Ince and is a Paramount Arteraft release. There will also be a Sennett comedy.

BOTH SIDES ADAMANT IN ENGLAND'S LABOR CRISIS

Feverish Efforts To Get 2 Sides Together Fruitless—Royal Family Moves to Buckingham Palace

London, April 9.—The blackest day in England's history since Haig issued the famous "Back to Wall" message to the army in Flanders opened with both sides in the industrial crisis absolutely adamant. The feverish efforts to get miners and the government together again were completely fruitless but are continued. Only a backdown by one side or the other can avert a general strike. The triple alliance is threatened for Tuesday. The Royal family has moved from Windsor Castle to Buckingham Palace, which is fortified. The miners' delegates issued the following statement: "It is vanity on the part of the premier to think that we will surrender our main weapon." The weapon is the miners' refusal to safe guard the mines against flooding. London and the rest of the kingdom are assuming more and more a war-like aspect, violence increasing.

VENDOR PROVES TO BE RARE SONG BIRD IN SELECT SUBURBS

Golden Voiced Huckster Has Quit Huckstering and Joined Grand Opera.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 8,—Michael Vellelunga, the golden voiced huckster of the aristocratic Oakland section of Pittsburg, will be heard no more here. He has quit huckstering and gone back to grand opera at the famous Scala Opero House in Italy whence he came some years ago when he lost his voice through too strong medicine prescribed by a doctor.

But the memory of that sweet voice will linger a long time among the many housewives who made haste to get out-doors to hear arias from "Faust," "IlTrovatore" and "Carmen" as good-natured Vellelunga came up or down the street. He came here unknown and left in almost as high esteem as some of the noted singers. Indeed some of Oakland's residents will tell one that Velleluga had a voice in power and sweetness almost comparable with Scotti or Caruso.

Vellelunga formerly sang at the Scala Opera House, one of the finest in Italy and in Europe, but inflamatory rheumatism kept him in bed for a year and when he emerged his great voice was gone. Strong medicine had ruined it.

He had a brother in Pittsburg in the fruit business. So he came to Pittsburg. He bought a huckster wagon and attended the fruit sales at Twenty-first street and bought modest stock carefully. Then he invaded Oakland where fine homes abound. Hucksters there are as thick as flies in Summer time. Competition was keen. The others were known; they had their friends. Vellelunga was an interloper. But he persisted.

Sings "Carrot" Aria.

One day in a spirit of more than usual cheerfulness he began to sing a song of carrots, bannas and cauliflower. It was a remarkably sweet voice that huckster sang in. Vellelunga was as amazed as any of those who heard him. His voice had "come back." The next day he sang an aria from "Carmen." He sang splendidly and attracted much attention. Business with him grew by leaps and bounds. Everybody soon looked for that singing huckster.

Songbird Says Good-Bye.

Here in Pittsburg he had a host of friends and they eagerly looked for his return three times a week and they called him the "Italian Songbird." Many of them even invited him to dinner and to sing in their parlors. Others offered him wine. What a life.

In 1919 the "flu" laid him low and his old attack of rheumatism came back. Doctors arrived at his home in droves, all sent by his fair customers. He recovered and there were salvos of applause when he once more boomed out that "Toreador" song.

Now he smiles bids his friends good-bye, txis to the depot. He is go-good-bye, taxis to the depot. He is go-behind when adversity hit him hardest. The huckster is done. It's back to grand opera.

When he comes to Pittsburg again, some day, there will be an audience awaiting him just as large and enthusiastic as the one which recently greeted Mary Garden. But Mary is an outsider. Isn't Vallelunga Oakland's own? Out in swell Oakland they will tell you he is, that he is just as nifty a singer as anything Mary Garden brought along to Pittsburg from Chicago.

Miss Carrie Mae Coler, who has been spending the week in Maryville visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Archer and son, Blaine, will return to Missouri Valley, Ia., tomorrow night, where she teaches in the public schools.
